

Limited English Proficiency:

Our organization will provide aid and services to persons with communication disabilities. This includes, but is not limited to, written information in other formats; information provided in other languages; and language services for persons whose primary language is not English (including sign language as required). “Language Line’ services will be provided as indicated and are available in a multitude of languages twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week. For the deaf and very hard of hearing, TTY service may be employed. Our organization maintains a list of approved sign language interpreters, and sign language interpreter services may be provided by at no cost to the patient as indicated by situation.